Interim President to Remain at SUNYIT

Dr. Peter A. Spina to serve through 2005-2006

Officials at the State University of New York (SUNY) and SUNYIT have announced an extended appointment for Dr. Peter A. Spina, Interim President.

"Excellence of presidential leadership at SUNY campuses is a critical component for the future success of our university. I have asked Peter to remain as Interim President at SUNYIT through the 2005-06 academic year at the very least," Chancellor Robert L. King said. "The SUNYIT College Council has indicated its support, and Dr. Spina has agreed to lead the campus forward at this important period of its institutional development."

College Council Chair Jim Brock Jr. said the Council has discussed the Chancellor's recommendation. "We are in complete agreement with the Chancellor," Brock said. "Peter Spina is moving SUNYIT in the right direction, and we are pleased we will continue to have the benefit of his leadership."

"I thank the Chancellor, Chairman Brock, and members of the College Council," Dr. Spina said. "SUNYIT is an exciting institution facing many opportunities for renewal and growth, and I look forward to working with the faculty, staff, and all members of the community to meet the needs of students now and in the years ahead."

From 1981 to 1999 Spina was President of Monroe Community College in Rochester, N.Y., the largest multi-campus community college in upstate New York. From 1999 to 2003, he was Founding Executive Director of the Institute for Community College Development at Cornell University, a professional leadership development and research partnership between SUNY and Cornell University. From 2003 until assuming the duties of Interim President at SUNYIT in June 2004, he served as interim president at Thomas Nelson Community College, in Hampton and Williamsburg, Va.

Named President Emeritus of Monroe Community College in 1999, Dr. Spina is the recipient of a number of honors recognizing his academic leadership and community service, including the Association of Presidents of Public Community Colleges Presidential Service Award and the Greater Rochester Chamber of Commerce Civic Medal. In 1999, he was named the first honorary lifetime member of the American Association of Community Colleges.

"Betty" Capaldi, Herkimer County Community College President Ronald F. Williams, SUNYIT Interim President Dr. Peter A. Spina, and Utica School of Commerce President Phil Williams.

A Warm Welcome!

Area college presidents welcomed SUNYIT Interim President Peter A. Spina to the region with a private meeting on the campus of Herkimer County Community College July 27. HCCC President Ronald F. Williams and Dr. Spina were joined by SUNY Vice Chancellor and Chief of Staff Elizabeth D. "Betty" Capaldi, Mohawk Valley Community College President Michael I. Schafer, Utica School of Commerce President Phil Williams, and Fulton-Montgomery Community College President Barry Weinberg.

"We had a great meeting," Dr. Capaldi told reporters at a press briefing. "Dr. Spina is a great, fresh presence...SUNY is committed to this area, and the future is very bright for collaboration among the area's institutions."

Dr. Spina stressed the "tremendous potential" area colleges offer for Mohawk Valley residents seeking higher education; SUNYIT was founded in 1966 to offer regional community college graduates opportunities for completion of a bachelor's degree. "There are hundreds of students graduating from community colleges in this area," Dr. Spina said. "Some academic programs need to be redesigned to make them a better fit [for transfer students]. We are going to do so, and we are going to do so expeditiously."

"We've always had the best interest of SUNYIT at heart," Dr. Williams said. "We plan to continue these discussions, and you can expect more concrete results."

READING ROOM

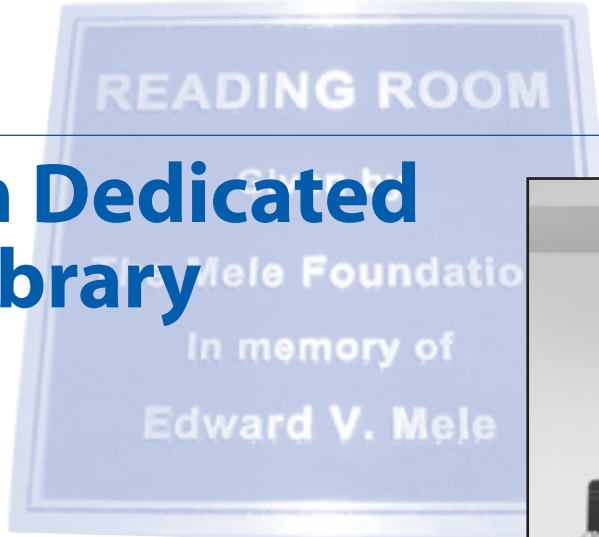

Mele Room Dedicated in Cayan Library

Friends, family, and colleagues gathered September 22 in the Cayan Library to honor the memory of Edward V. Mele, the late chairman of Mele Manufacturing, Inc. of Utica, N.Y.

A dedication ceremony was held to formally name the “Edward V. Mele/Mele Foundation Room” in recognition of a $100,000 gift from The Mele Foundation. The gift will permanently endow a new SUNYIT student scholarship in Mr. Mele’s honor. Speakers at the ceremony included Ms. Robbin Mele, spouse of the late Edward Mele; Mr. Joseph E. Mele, President of the Mele Foundation; Dr. Theodore Max, Member of the SUNYIT Foundation and College Council; Dr. Peter A. Spina, Interim President of SUNYIT; and Dr. Peter J. Cayan, President Emeritus. A photograph of Mr. Mele and a bronze plaque were unveiled during the ceremony and are displayed permanently in the Mele Room.

Edward V. Mele became president of Mele Manufacturing in 1951 and was active in the community until his death in January 2003 at age 84. He served on the boards of trustees of the State University of New York and the SUNY Construction Fund, and was also active in many community organizations.

The Edward V. Mele/Mele Foundation Room is the largest reading room in the Cayan Library. Located on the second floor, the Mele Room features a fireplace and offers views of the north campus lawn and Kunsela Hall. The $14 million Cayan Library was dedicated in 2003.

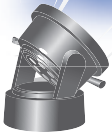

Scenes from the September event: The Mele Room plaque, Robbin Mele and Vice President for Resource Development Dr. Daniel J. Murphy at the dedication ceremony, Mele Foundation President Joseph E. Mele addresses the gathering, SUNYIT Foundation and College Council member Dr. Theodore Max and Dr. Murphy unveil the portrait of Edward V. Mele.

Alumni Spotlight

In Charge, In Rome

Alum says education advanced his career

SUNYIT's 20,000 alumni are successful in all walks of life, and in many professions—including law enforcement. No one has had more success close to home than Rome native Otto Panara, now Interim Chief of Police for the City of Rome Police Department.

By the time he was in his early 20s, Panara knew he wanted a law enforcement career. The son of a dry cleaner and tailor, he graduated from Rome Free Academy in 1953 and spent the next five years working in his father's business, Superior Dry Cleaners, and working at a local gas station. In 1958, he was drafted, and for two years, he served as a corporal in the U.S. Army, stationed in Korea. Back home, he applied to become a state trooper but encountered a hiring freeze.

Determined to pursue a law enforcement career, Panara turned to local police work. In 1965, he became a Rome Police Department patrolman, a position he held until 1973. His duties were diverse: patrolling the downtown area, checking businesses, handling auto accidents and domestic disputes, breaking up bar fights.

Panara recalls those early years on the force with satisfaction. He remembers helping a woman and her children escape from a fire in a second floor apartment above the Rome Bowling Center. Another time, he identified an arsonist fleeing a burning building on North

Interim Chief Otto Panara '77

Washington Street by recognizing the man's companion: his ever-present large dog. "Walking a beat gives anyone an education of what police work is. You take care of things by yourself," he explains. "It allows an officer to help people. They knew we were there 24 hours a day."

Despite working long hours, Panara decided to continue his education. First, he attended Mohawk Valley Community College, earning an associate's degree in police science in 1972; he was the first Rome Police Department member to earn a college degree in police science.

In 1974, Panara enrolled at SUNYIT, then Upper Division College. Taking classes three nights a week and Saturdays, writing papers and studying for exams – plus working full-time in the Rome Police Department – provided challenges, but Panara didn't mind. "I really liked what I was doing," he says.

Most helpful to Panara were criminal justice courses, especially those taught by former Syracuse Police Chief Thomas Sardino and by the late Utica attorney and one-time mayor Stephen Pawlinga. In instructor John MacEnroe's administration courses, Panara learned budgeting and managing subordinates. SUNYIT's psychology courses were valuable too. "They helped me bring people together."

In 1977, Panara graduated from SUNYIT cum laude with a bachelor's degree in professional studies, criminal justice. He's proud of that achievement, recognizing the role education played in his career advancement. "SUNYIT's program gave me an excellent foundation to further my accomplishments in the law enforcement field," he says.

Panara's advancement continued. He was an investigator in the Juvenile Aid Division from 1973 to 1978; he became a sergeant and commander of that division in 1978; he was a liaison between the Rome Civil Defense Council and Rome Auxiliary Police from 1978 to 1985; he served as lieutenant and assistant watch commander in 1987; he became captain and watch commander in 1989. From 1994 to 1996, he juggled duties as day watch commander, deputy chief and detective division commander. In 1995, Panara became deputy chief of police.

Throughout his career, Panara has received commendations, plus exceptional service and departmental meritorious service awards. In 1988, he earned the New York State Juvenile Officer of the Year award.

Panara is especially proud of his work with juveniles. He's visited schools, teaching children how to stay safe and become good citizens. Although he usually wore plain clothes as an investigator, he always wore his uniform when visiting schools. "I had nothing but positive responses from kids," he says. "It's meaningful to have officers in schools to get on a personal basis with them."

Now, as interim police chief, Panara, 68, works 60-plus hour weeks, managing the 74-person department. He oversees special investigations, training, patrol, juvenile aid, accident reconstruction, canine and mountain bike patrols, and a special response team. As interim police chief, he attends more meetings and is more visible. The most challenging part of the job? "Being every place at once," he says with a smile.

To relax, Panara and his wife, Judith, enjoy traveling to Saratoga, the Finger Lakes and to New York City, where their son, Christopher, lives. Occasionally, Panara watches "Law and Order," which he calls "semi-realistic." He likes antique cars: he owns a 1927 Model T Ford, as well as a Harley Davidson.

Having risen through the ranks to the top of the department, Panara still has some goals. He hopes for an auxiliary building for training and forensic investigations, and he'd like the department to acquire a snowmobile to help patrol rural areas.

How long will he remain Rome Police Department's interim chief? "As long as needed," he says. "I enjoy the work."

“SUNYIT’s program gave me an excellent foundation to further my accomplishments in the law enforcement field.”

Fall 2004 Open House Welcomes Students, Families to Campus

More than 300 prospective students, their family members and guests attended Open House Saturday, November 6, on the SUNYIT campus. Open House has traditionally been held twice a year to give prospective undergraduate and graduate students and family members information about SUNYIT's programs in technology and professional studies, and a first-hand look at the SUNYIT campus.

"On behalf of the faculty and staff, I am happy to welcome you to SUNYIT," said Dr. Peter A. Spina, Interim President. "It's a pleasure to see so many students and parents here and I know once you get to know us today, we'll be seeing more of you in the future."

Participants at Open House heard presentations from Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Kenneth Kraft and Vice President for Student Affairs Dr.

Scott Mantie. Following the overview presentations, students and parents met with faculty to discuss specific academic programs, and with staff to ask questions about admissions, financial aid, and other aspects of campus life. Lunch in the Campus Center and tours of the campus, including SUNYIT's two Residence Halls, rounded out the program.

"It was great to see a growing number of prospective students and parents taking part in Open House," said Marybeth Lyons, SUNYIT director of admissions. "Those who weren't able to join us are welcome to contact the Admissions Office at 1 (866) 2-SUNYIT and we'll be happy to set up individual campus visits, or send them an information packet."

In October, SUNYIT welcomed prospective freshmen and their families to campus for a full-scale visitation day. "Discovery Day" was held on the Columbus Day school holiday, October 11. The next SUNYIT Open House will be held on April 9, 2005; for more information, visit www.sunyit.edu, phone 792-7500 or 1-(866) 2-SUNYIT, or e-mail: admissions@sunyit.edu.

Office of Admissions staff member Lori Becker welcomes visitors to Open House.

College Council News

Max reappointed, Donovan joins board

Governor George Pataki has announced the reappointment of retired surgeon and educator Theodore C. Max, M.D., and the new appointment of Patrick J. Donovan of Utica to the SUNYIT College Council. Dr. Max's term will expire June 30, 2010. Donovan's term will expire June 30, 2006; his appointment fills a vacancy created by the resignation of Richard Collins.

During his career, Dr. Max held a number of hospital appointments, including senior surgeon, former chief of surgery, and past-president of medical staff at both St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Utica, N.Y., and St. Luke's-Memorial Hospital, New Hartford, N.Y.

He was a Fellow and a Member of the Board of Governors of the American College of Surgeons, and is a current or past member of a number of other professional organizations, including the American College of Surgeons, New York State Department of Health Board for Professional Medical Conduct, Central New York Academy of Medicine, and the Medical Society of the State of New York.

He has held teaching appointments at the University of Rochester, where he was Senior Instructor in Surgery. He is also active as a facilitator and board member of the Mohawk Valley Institute for Learning in Retirement.

Dr. Max is the recipient of the American Medical Association's Physicians Recognition Award, and has been profiled in Who's Who in Medicine and Healthcare, and Who's Who in the World. He is the author of numerous research publications in his discipline, and has presented at medical and academic conferences across the country.

Theodore C. Max, M.D.

Donovan is President of the Utica Common Council, sits on the City's Board of Estimate and Apportionment, is a member of the Council's Economic Development Committee, and chairs the City's Public Safety Committee. He is currently the Associate Executive Director of United Cerebral Palsy of the Utica Area, Inc. From 1993 to 1998, he served as Oneida County Comptroller. Educated in the Utica public schools, he is a 1984 graduate of SUNYIT.

Donovan is also involved in a number of community organizations; he serves as treasurer of Utica Dollars for Scholars, chairman of the Oneida County Sports Facility Authority, and treasurer of the North Utica Little League. He is the recipient of both the "40 under 40" and "Accent on Excellence" community leadership awards.

Each campus of the State University of New York is advised by a 10-member council. Nine members are appointed by the governor to serve six-year terms; the tenth member is a student elected annually by the student body on each campus. The College Council is entrusted with broad powers of advice and counsel; members are concerned with all major institutional policy decisions, setting academic standards, budget review and all manner of decisions that affect students' well-being.

Getting Communities Ready for Emergencies

Lecture presented by SUNYIT Center for Health & Aging

Dr. Mary Lou Wranesh Cook, professor, looks on as Dr. Kristine M. Gebbie is interviewed by WIBX radio reporter Angela Perdos in Kunsela Lecture Hall.

The role of nurses in responding to public emergencies was discussed in a lecture at SUNYIT on October 7. “Emergencies Happen: Helping a community get ready” was presented by Columbia University’s Dr. Kristine M. Gebbie in Kunsela Lecture Hall.

Kristine M. Gebbie, DrPH, RN, is the Elizabeth Standish Gill Associate Professor of Nursing and Director, Center for Health Policy at Columbia University School of Nursing.

The Center for Health and Aging at SUNYIT, established in 1998, enables faculty from several disciplines to conduct interdisciplinary research and related activities in the areas of aging and health. Recent and ongoing research initiatives include the dynamics of functional status among older persons, use of long-term care services, caregiving, the delivery of mental health services to older persons, active life expectancy, population-based research, and health care marketing.

SUNYIT MBA Program Launches “Quick Start”

Outreach Aimed at Working Professionals

Two years after starting the Mohawk Valley’s first MBA program, SUNYIT’s School of Management recently announced an effort that will allow working professionals easier access to the Master of Business Administration in Technology Management. “Quick Start” will enable qualified students to take up to six credit hours in the program before meeting all formal admission requirements.

“This is an opportunity for anyone in the Mohawk Valley, especially working professionals, to explore the MBA program at SUNYIT on a part-time basis,” said Marybeth Lyons, director of admissions. “Once a student has taken one or two classes, we can help them meet all the necessary requirements for formal admission, and they can complete their MBA on a part-time or full-time basis.”

For the convenience of students with other commitments, MBA courses are offered weekday evenings on the SUNYIT campus.

Students can concentrate their studies in accounting and finance, health services management, human resource management, e-commerce and marketing, or design an individual concentration. More information on “Quick Start” and the MBA program are available online, at www.mba.sunyit.edu, or by calling the School of Management, 315-792-7429.

In addition to the MBA, SUNYIT’s School of Management offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in accounting, finance, health services administration, and management. Many courses and select degree programs are available online.

Career Fair Brings Together Job-Seekers, Employers

Hundreds of students, alumni and other job-seekers joined more than 65 employers at SUNYIT's Career Fair 2004 on October 21 in the Campus Center gymnasium.

Participating employers were looking to fill internship, part-time, and full-time opportunities; current SUNYIT students, alumni and other interested attendees distributed résumés and pursued potential career connections.

Among the employers recruiting at Career Fair 2004 were: BAE Systems, Eversan Incorporated, Fiber Instrument Sales, Masonic Care Community, Orion Bus Industries, Resource Center for Independent Living, Clough, Harbour & Associates, Community General Hospital, Dolphin Technology, Lockheed Martin, NYS Department of Transportation, Northland Communications, Rome Research, D'Arcangelo & Co, St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Oneida Indian Nation, and Utica National Insurance Group.

Scenes from Career Fair 2004: interaction with potential employers and a chance to share resumés make the event a worthwhile experience for students who attend.

“Increasingly, employers are relying on Career Services as a resource for experienced professionals in addition to the more traditional entry-level hires,” says Career Services assistant director Robert Palazzo. “Alumni who attended Career Fair found employers offering professional advancement as well as opportunities to make a career change.”

Safety First: AED's on Campus

MVILR donation paved the way for defibrillator program

In official surveys, the SUNYIT campus always gets high marks from students for safety and security. Now, thanks to some new equipment the campus is even safer.

Automatic External Defibrillators – AED's – are now available in all campus buildings. Increasingly used in a variety of public locations, AED's save lives by delivering an electrical shock to restart the heart of someone suffering from cardiac arrest.

SUNYIT's defibrillators are in seven locations:

- Cayan Library, on the wall near the main entrance and circulation desk
- Donovan Hall, the hallway outside the School of Nursing & Health Systems office
- Adirondack Hall, on the wall in the vestibule entrance to the main office and mailbox area
- Mohawk Hall, on the wall in the vestibule entrance to the main office and mailbox area

- Facilities Building, the lunch/break room
- Kunsela Hall, University Police Office on the ground floor
- Campus Center, Room 130

Heading the effort to install the units and make sure enough people are properly trained to use them are University Police Officer Joseph Piazza, and Environmental Health & Safety Officer Mark Fairbrother.

“Joe had to put together appropriate documentation, notify the proper off-campus agencies, and put together a procedures manual,” Fairbrother said. “He’s also been instrumental in training volunteers in the use of the units.” The first of the AED's was donated to the campus by the Mohawk Valley Institute for Learning in Retirement; the rest of the $2,000 units were purchased with campus funds.

The units can be used by anyone who have received CPR and AED training; Piazza has already trained more than 30 faculty and staff volunteers and will invite others to take part in the four-hour training course in the months ahead. "For every minute cardiac arrest victims go without defibrillation, their survival rate decreases by 10 percent," Piazza said. "Training in the proper operation of the AED's is critical, and we're fortunate that a number of people have already come forward and are trained."

Fairbrother and Piazza said any time you are present when a medical emergency occurs on campus, you should immediately call University Police at ext. 111 or 7105. In cases where a defibrillation unit is removed from its cabinet in one of the campus buildings, a local alarm will sound but Police should be contacted so medical responders can be called as needed.

At MVILR's September open house: SUNYIT President Dr. Peter A. Spina, MVILR Special Events Committee Chair Kathleen Lloyd, MVILR Administrator Sandra Ouder Kirk, and MVILR President Russel C. Fielding.

MVILR Launches Eighth Year

The Mohawk Valley Institute for Learning in Retirement on the SUNYIT campus launched a new fall term with an open house in September.

MVILR is the fifth largest of more than 260 Institute for Learning in Retirement programs throughout the country. Now in its eighth year, MVILR opened new horizons of learning for some 700 Mohawk Valley residents last year alone, without the stress of homework, papers or tests. An offshoot of Elderhostel, MVILR is hosted by SUNYIT, which provides members with access to the college library, bookstore, dining halls, athletic facilities and many campus events.

For more information on membership, contact the MVILR office on the SUNYIT campus at 315-792-7192, or visit www.mvilr.sunyit.edu.

SUNYIT Announces Plans for December 2004 Commencement

The State University of New York Institute of Technology (SUNYIT) will hold Commencement on Saturday, December 18. The 1 p.m. ceremony will take place in the Campus Center Gymnasium and a reception will follow.

An estimated 400 graduates will join the ranks of SUNYIT's more than 20,000 alumni. Bachelor's and master's degrees will be awarded from SUNYIT's four Schools: Arts & Sciences, Information Systems & Engineering Technology, Management, and Nursing & Health Systems. Graduates who completed the coursework necessary for their degrees in August have been invited to participate in the December ceremony as well.

Judicial Official from India Visits SUNYIT

Daughter pursuing graduate degree in telecommunications

A judicial official from India visited the SUNYIT campus before the start of the fall semester to help prepare for the enrollment of his daughter in a graduate program.

Justice P.D. Dinakaran is the father of Amudhaporkodi Dinakaran, who is pursuing a master of science in telecommunications. Justice Dinakaran, along with family members and friends, visited the SUNYIT campus and the Utica area in August, meeting with Dr. Peter A. Spina, Interim President; Dr. Kenneth Kraft, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs; and members of the telecommunications faculty.

Justice Dinakaran is a Judge of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, the highest Court of Civil and Criminal jurisdiction in Chennai, formerly known as Madras, India's fourth-largest city.

SUNYIT offers bachelor's and master's degree programs in telecommunications. The M.S. in Telecommunications is the only one of its kind in the State University system and has long welcomed international students. Students study in small classes, experience high interaction with their professors, and take frequent trips to research and network centers in New York City, Ottawa, and elsewhere.

Interim President Dr. Peter A. Spina met with Justice P.D. Dinakaran and members of his family as his daughter, Amudhaporkodi Dinakaran, prepared to enroll at SUNYIT.

Faculty Member Receives Goodell Award

Dr. Amir Fariborz, assistant professor of physics, has been selected by the Graduate Council Scholarship/Research Awards Committee to receive the 2004 William Goodell Research Creativity Award. The award recognizes superior performance in the area of research and creativity. Dr. Fariborz's name is on a plaque that hangs outside the Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs' office in Kunsela Hall, and he has received a $500 stipend.

Dr. Amir Fariborz

Alumni Donors

We express sincere appreciation to all our donors for their generous support of SUNYIT. This Honor Roll includes donors for two fiscal years: 2002-03 and 2003-04. Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy. If we have omitted, misspelled, or misplaced your name, please accept our apologies, and notify the College Relations and Development Office, 315-792-7113.

Phone: (315)792-7113 • Fax: (315)792-7266
E-mail: foundation@sunyit.edu

PLEASE SEND ME MORE INFORMATION ABOUT:

- Matching Gift Programs
- Creating a Named Scholarship or other Endowment at SUNYIT
- Gifts of Appreciated Assets (ie. Real Estate, Stocks & other Securities)
- Gifts that pay me income (Charitable Trusts and Annuities)
- Including SUNYIT in my Will or Trust
- Other:
- I have already included SUNYIT in my estate plans

The fiscal year begins July 1 and ends June 30. Please send your gift by June 30 to ensure listing in the Foundation's annual Honor Roll of Donors.

MATCHING GIFT PROGRAM

If you work for a company that matches gifts to higher education, you can double or triple the value of your contribution by following your employer's matching gift procedures. Many companies match the gifts of spouses, retirees, and surviving spouses of retirees in addition to gifts from current employees. Please contact your personnel or human resources office for eligibility information and to obtain a matching gift form. Enclose the completed form with your contribution. We will verify your contribution and return the form to your employer, who will send the matching gift directly to SUNYIT. We appreciate your efforts to maximize the available resources to ensure a bright future for SUNYIT and its students.

Murphy Joins Athletic Staff

Hall of Famer takes associate head coach's spot

The last time Tom Murphy and Kevin Grimmer shared the same side of a basketball court the results were quite remarkable.

With Murphy as head coach and Grimmer anchoring the post, the men's basketball team at Hamilton College produced an 82-21 record from 1977-81, along with two ECAC championships. Highlights during that span include Murphy being honored as the National Coach of the Year in 1979 and Grimmer being named a NCAA Division III All-America in 1981.

The two have reunited 23 years later as Murphy joins the SUNYIT athletics staff after an amazing 34-year career in athletics at Hamilton. Grimmer, director of athletics and men's basketball coach at SUNYIT, has announced that Murphy joins the Wildcats this season as an associate head coach for men's basketball.

Tom Murphy

"Coach Murphy brings an enormous amount of experience and achievement to SUNYIT athletics – not just for the men's basketball team, but for our entire program," says Grimmer. "As the Wildcat sports program continues to emerge we are truly fortunate to have Coach Murphy join us to help guide SUNYIT athletics down the road to prominence in the SUNYAC."

Murphy, a member of the New York State, Greater Utica and SUNY Sports Halls of Fame, brings impressive credentials across the valley to SUNYIT. His basketball coaching achievements feature a 128-14 record - including a national high school record of 104 consecutive victories – at Union Academy in Belleville. At Hamilton his teams amassed a 602-263 record, made 30 postseason tournament appearances and had 16 twenty-win seasons. Murphy coached 20 All-Americans and two national players of the year at Hamilton.

As Hamilton's director of athletics from 1979-2002, Murphy oversaw the development of 12 additional varsity sports programs and many major building projects, including the Bundy Scott Fieldhouse, Bristol Swimming Pool, Love Field, Ade Fitness Center and the renovation of the Sage Rink. He has directed the premier summer basketball camp in the area at Hamilton and also raised the second largest amount of money of any NCAA III school in the nation with the Coaches vs. Cancer campaign.

Murphy holds B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from Springfield College in Massachusetts and lives with his wife, Joanne, in Clinton, N.Y.

"I am extremely happy to join the SUNYIT family," says Murphy. "I look forward to the coming years and hope that I can make a positive contribution to the athletics program at SUNYIT."
