- Any other documentation that you would like to submit to support your request. (Examples include police reports, court papers, etc.)
- Your completed 2023-2024 FAFSA. You may leave parent section blank.
- Depending on the complexity of your request, additional documentation may be requested.

Please note that the federal guidelines regarding dependency overrides clearly indicate that the following situations DO NOT qualify as extenuating circumstances and therefore would not result in a dependency override.

1. Parent(s) refusing to contribute to the student’s education.
2. Parent(s) unwilling to provide information on the application or for verification.
3. Parent(s) not claiming the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.
4. Student demonstrating total self-sufficiency.

Your documentation must support an extenuating or unusual circumstance that is not included above. Examples may include students who have no contact with their parent(s) due to circumstances beyond their control and students leaving an abusive household. These examples are only a guide and are not all that will be considered. If you document your circumstances, they will be reviewed. You will receive a decision in writing from the Financial Aid Office with any further instruction if necessary.

If you have any questions, please call or e-mail the Financial Aid Office as noted below.
